Spencer Museum of Art
Color Our Collections Instructions

- Kids of all ages are welcome to enter.
- Choose a coloring page and print it out, either from this document or select an individual image from the page on our website.
- If you don’t have access to a printer, you can use the coloring sheet as a guide to draw the image.
- Color or decorate the design with materials of your choice (crayon, colored pencil, marker, collage, etc.). There are prompts with each coloring page that may inspire you. Use them if you like or go your own creative way. Just be sure to have fun and let your imagination fly!
- Take a photo of your completed coloring sheet and email it as a jpeg to visitors@ku.edu. Please include the name you would like to accompany your image online if it is selected.
- If you would like to be entered in the prize drawing but do not want your creation featured online, let us know that in your email.
- Be sure to submit your entry by May 31, 2020.
This artist uses thick paint to look like real frosting.
How would you decorate the cake to make it look good enough to eat?
A lot of Native American clothing includes beadwork. This dress is created by a Cheyenne maker with geometric designs in beautiful colors. What colors would you use? Feel free to add more designs!
That’s a big wave! Write a haiku in the empty space to tell a story about this scene.
A haiku is a three line poem with 5, 7, and 5 syllables.
What makes you want to howl and where can you go to let it all out?
What would your fantasy landscape look like?

Adapted from Howl by Luis Alfonso Jimenez fiberglass, acrylic urethane, 1986
www.spencerart.ku.edu
This artist included many items in this painting that have a special meaning. Can you find them all? (Sundial, doves, cross and beads, paper, bell, banner)
He looks like he has a secret to tell. What do you think it could be?

Adapted from Le Discret by Joseph Ducreux oil, aluminum panel (transferred from canvas), circa 1791
www.spencerart.ku.edu
If you could star in your own TV show, who would you be? Draw yourself here!
From Snow White to sushi, the subjects in this work of art range widely, like a conversation at a dinner party. What would you add to the conversation? Draw your ideas in the margins.